Baccalaureate Academic Merit Scholarship Guidelines and Application

The Johns Hopkins University School of Nursing offers a limited number of Baccalaureate Academic Merit Scholarships covering half-tuition costs to qualified accepted students. The awards are made to those accepted students who, in the judgment of the faculty of the School of Nursing, have demonstrated academic excellence, leadership capabilities and extracurricular involvement. The Scholarship is renewable for each of the four semesters provided you remain in good academic standing at the School of Nursing and depending on availability of funds.

For BS to MSN applicants, the half-tuition award will cover the tuition for the Baccalaureate Program. Accepted students who elect to continue into the graduate portion of the program will have the opportunity to apply for merit based awards prior to enrolling in the Master's Program.

To be eligible for the Baccalaureate Academic Merit Scholarship, you must:

- Apply for admission to the Johns Hopkins University School of Nursing Baccalaureate Program
- Have an outstanding academic record
- Have demonstrated leadership capabilities and extracurricular involvement

To be considered for the Baccalaureate Academic Merit Scholarship you must:

- Complete the Baccalaureate Academic Merit Scholarship Application
- Submit a typed personal statement (maximum two double spaced pages) addressing the following:

Describe how your leadership and extracurricular experiences have contributed to your career goals and how receiving an Academic Merit Scholarship from the Johns Hopkins University School of Nursing will assist in the continued pursuit of those goals.

- Return both documents no later than February 1

The recipients of the Baccalaureate Academic Merit Scholarship will:

- Remain in good academic standing
- Provide stewardship to the donor as requested by the Development Office. Stewardship may include activities such as thank you letters and attending a scholar/donor luncheon.
