

Robin Anderson

114 North Wolfe Street, Apartment 103
Baltimore, MD 21205
(410) 555-1212
randerson@nursing.com

OBJECTIVE

Registered nurse position on HIV/AIDS unit

QUALIFICATION SUMMARY

- Nursing experience in medical rotation on HIV/AIDS unit at Johns Hopkins Hospital.
- Community experience at Chase Brexton Health Services community health clinic with large population of HIV/AIDS patients.
- HIV/AIDS education experience through plasma donation screening, patient education, and discharge teaching.
- Multidisciplinary coordination of referrals through Cancer Awareness Resources Exams and Screenings (CARES) program.

EDUCATION

The Johns Hopkins University School of Nursing, Baltimore, MD
Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree candidate, expected July 2006. GPA 3.59/4.0

College of Cincinnati, Cincinnati, OH
Bachelor of Science in Biology, May 2004. GPA 3.53/4.0

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

The Johns Hopkins University School of Nursing, Baltimore, MD, 2005-present.

Nursing Student

Completed 3 clinical rotations (112 hours each) in episodic/continuing care, labor and delivery/postpartum, and pediatric nursing. Will complete adult medical/surgical, psychiatric, and community health nursing rotations by June 2004. Will complete transitions practicum (224 hours) in HIV/AIDS unit at Johns Hopkins Hospital.

- Perform patient assessments, administer medications, evaluate labs, gather patient history, promote patient responsibility and self-care, manage discharge planning, and provide discharge teaching and patient education.

Chase Brexton Health Services, Inc., Baltimore, MD

Nursing Assistant for Women's Evening Clinic, January 2005 – present

- Provide care for diverse population including HIV-positive women.
- Obtain vital signs and EKGs and administer medications and immunizations.
- Assist providers with pap smears and colposcopy.
- Document care using Logician Electronic Patient Record (EPR).

Robin Anderson

Page 2

Chase Brexton Health Services, Inc., Baltimore, MD

CARES Coordinator, November 2005 - present

- Coordinate referrals for breast health examinations and screenings between clients, medical providers, and outside agencies for insured and uninsured women including HIV-positive women.
- Educate underserved women about mammograms.
- Track clients' receipt of mammograms to ensure follow up and promote breast health.
- Maintain files and reports using Logician EPR and Enterprise Referral Systems.
- Established mammogram referral database to annually compare data.

The Medical University of Ohio, Cincinnati, OH, May 2003 – May 2004

Cardiothoracic Surgery Research, May 2003 – May 2004

Research Specialist

- Screened transgenic mice to determine breeding of new strain.
- Extracted human, porcine, and murine protein from heart samples.
- Developed new protocol for membrane bound proteins.
- Identified proteins through zymography and immunoblotting and analyzed results using Gel Pro and Adobe Photoshop programs.