

Kelly Masters
111 Washington Street
Baltimore, MD 21205
(410) 555-1212
kmasters@nursing.com

OBJECTIVE

Registered Nurse Position on Pediatric Oncology Unit

EDUCATION

Johns Hopkins University School of Nursing, Baltimore, MD
Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree candidate, expected May 2006

University of Chicago, Chicago, IL
Bachelor of Arts Major: Asian Studies, May 2003
GPA 3.5/4.0, President's Honor Roll

University of London, Glasgow, Scotland
Study Abroad, Spring Semester 2002

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Johns Hopkins University School of Nursing, Baltimore, MD
Nursing Student, September, 2004-present

Extensive clinical experience with 112 hours in each rotation, including geriatrics/ED, obstetrics/gynecology, pediatrics, and medical/surgical. Will complete 112 hours in psychiatry, community health nursing and pediatric oncology. Will also complete seven-week transitions practicum in pediatric oncology (precepted, 224 hours) in Spring 2006.

- Provided direct care to children and adolescents with leukemia, including vital signs, ADLs medication administration, blood transfusion monitoring, supportive care and family education.

Johns Hopkins Hospital, Medical-Surgical Pediatric Floor, Baltimore, MD
Nursing Assistant, May 2005-present

- Provide direct patient care for children (0-18 years) with severe illnesses including short-gut disease, sickle cell disease, asthma and leukemia.
- Give supportive care to children receiving chemotherapy including measuring specific gravity, intakes and outputs, monitoring vital signs during blood transfusions and providing comfort during reactions to medications.
- Perform blood glucose testing and urine dips.
- Evaluate IV-sites while on IMED pump.
- Prepare, hang, and monitor tube feedings on Kangaroo pump.
- Assist with dressing changes, blood draws from central lines and foley catheter insertions.
- Replace and drain ostomy bags and monitor ostomy sites for skin breakdown.
- Educate parents on treatment procedures, patient care and discharge instructions.

DISHES Project for Pediatric AIDS, Chicago, IL

Intern, June – September 2002

- Wrote proposals for corporate sponsorships resulting in awards totaling $20,000.
- Worked with models and assisted in coordinating fundraising event for Camp Hope.
- Solicited sponsors over phone and in-person.

Camp Hope, Rockford, IL

Volunteer Counselor at camp for HIV + children, Rockford, IL, July 2001

- Planned and supervised recreational activities for eight 10-year-old girls.
- Provided individualized care for children with special needs, including ADHD, port-a-caths and medication adherence difficulties.
- Worked with fellow counselors and members of psychosocial team to assist children experiencing homesickness and/or behavioral disorders.
- Administered medication to children in cabin.

Evans College, University of Chicago, Chicago, IL

Orientation Week Coordinator, February 2000-February 2001

- Interviewed over 100 candidates for advisor positions.
- Designed and published orientation book for incoming students.
- Assigned rooms to freshmen and paired roommates.
- Scheduled and organized activities for orientation week.

St. John's Hospital, Pediatric Unit, Philadelphia, PA

Volunteer, January – June 2000

- Fed children, and rocked and comforted babies.
- Organized playroom and supervised children.
- Maintained linens and supplies in patients' rooms.

ACTIVITIES

- Member, Association of Pediatric Oncology Nurses, 2005-present
- Member, National Student Nurses Association, 2004-present
- Member, Student Government Association, Johns Hopkins University School of Nursing, 2005-present